

Parent & Family Engagement Policy

North Canton Elementary

NCE Mission Statement for Parent and Family Engagement:

North Canton encourages the active participation of all parents in order to ensure the academic success of all students.

Ways for Parents to be Engaged:

Parents are Teachers: You can monitor homework, listen and read with your child, and provide learning activities at home.

Parents are Learners: You can communicate with teachers and Title 1 staff and attend events such as Reading, Math, and Science Lunch and Learns.

Parents as Decision Makers: You can give your opinion on surveys, attend parent/teacher conferences, and participate in parent-school groups at North Canton (ex. School Improvement Team, Parent Advisory Committee, Parent Teacher Association.)

Parents as Supporters/Advocates: You can volunteer at school, help organize activities, advocate for children, and attend school functions such as PTA, Family Reading and Math Nights.

Requirements for being a federally funded programs:

- Using researched based strategies and programs (ex. Foundations, Science of Reading, CKLA, Math Investigations)
- Staffed by highly qualified teachers
- Consistent accountability and reporting
- Using state assessments such as End of Grade Tests
- Sending home NC Education Report Cards
